

1 DELEGATE HARGROVE: My question is whether or
2 not your position is consistent with the legal opinion,
3 that is, on the question of the setting of bail, whether
4 or not you can deny a person the right to bail simply 5 because you feel he is going to commit a crime, as 6 opposed to setting a bail regardless of how much it is.

7 DELEGATE JAMES: Delegate Child.

8 DELEGATE CHILD: Not the setting of bail, but
9 the amount of bail.

10 DELEGATE JAMES: Delegate Hargrove.

11 DELEGATE HARGROVE: Then the provision in
12 Section 5-B and Section 8 would under those circumstances, --
13 you would need both, wouldn't you, because excessive
14 bail would be another question, wouldn't it?

15 DELEGATE JAMES: Delegate Child.

16 DELEGATE CHILD: Excessive bail is a matter
17 of -- bail is always a matter of the determination of the 18 judicial officer, whoever he may be.

19 DELEGATE JAMES: Delegate Hargrove.

20 DELEGATE HARGROVE: I think my question is,
21 isn't the excessive bail a separate and distinct question
